Mon 11th Aug Speaker Pauline Treen with 2 colleagues from North London Hospice told us how the Hospice provides specialist care for the terminally ill people and offers help and advice to their families and friends. They also look after people in their own homes. They have 400 volunteers. Pauline provided information about the forthcoming fundraising events. It cost £5 million a year to run their services but they receive only about £1m from Health Authority/NHS

Mon 18th Aug. Our Speaker was Yosef Haimanot. Ethiopian Art Centre UK. This was Yosef's second visit. He told us that they had now been allocated 3 acres to construct a Centre. He said with the present High School education, they did not learn English until 10th Grade and as the exams were in English the pass rate is very poor. They need good education to solve their Country's problems. He was not just looking for cash but also professional expertise
